Jennifer Priborsky / OFFICE MANAGER / EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT / RECEPTIONIST

Jennifer Priborsky is the office manager at the Olympia office. Jennifer is a LPN and has worked in the OBGYN setting for over 20 years. Jennifer loved establishing relationships with patients and following them from pregnancy to delivery, and is excited to create that same rapport with patients in the physical therapy realm. Jennifer is new to Washington, having recently moved from Las Vegas to the Lacey area. Jennifer has 4 children with her husband of 17 years.

Joey Jove / Senior PT (Physical Therapist)

Joey Jove is originally from Philippines and moved as a young child to California. After joining the army, he perused his education where he studied and earned his Masters in physical therapy from Loma Linda. Joey Jove has been practicing as a physical therapist since 1997. He has worked in a variety of physical therapy settings such as outpatient and hospital outpatient. He has a wife and two daughters who reside in Tacoma, Washington. In his spare time he enjoys practicing martial arts of different forms. Joey specializes in Sacroiliac joint rehabilitation sports injuries, geriatrics and other forms of rehab.

Nadia Renner / PT (Physical Therapist)

Nadia Renner joined the Epic team in the summer of 2017. Nadia graduated with a bachelors degree in Mass Communications from the University of California, Berkeley in 2007. Nadia was a member of the swim team during her time in school and earned Pac-10 Academic Team honors in 2006 and 2007. Nadia initially pursued a career coaching collegiate swimming after graduating, coaching at Hunter College and West Point Military Academy in New York. Nadia's interest in the rehabilitation process and love of working with people lead her to pursue a career in Physical Therapy. Nadia earned her Doctorate in Physical Therapy from New York Institute of technology in Long Island, New York in May of 2017. In her spare time, Nadia loves to exercise, shop and spend time as much times as possible with her husband and young daughter.

Michael Balbin / PTA (Physical Therapy Assistant)

I have been a practicing PTA for 7 years with goals to earn a doctorate in PT to expand my freedom to practice. Professional experiences include: geriatric, skilled nursing, and outpatient settings.

In my spare time, I tend to spend time learning to fix my car, wood working, and working in my sketchbook at random coffee shops.

Molly Robertson / PTA (Physical Therapy Assistant)

Molly has been working as a licensed PTA for over a year at Epic Physical Therapy. She graduated from Whatcom Community College in December of 2016, where she received her Associates of Science from the Physical Therapy Assistant program. Molly has also been a licensed Massage Practitioner for over 30 years, has worked as a personal trainer on both land in water, and has worked with people of all walks of life and physical conditions. Molly focuses on instilling in patients both the awareness and the ability to utilize correct body mechanics, therapeutic exercises and stretches to rehabilitate injuries and bring themselves to a greater state of health.

Diana Cash / Massage / LMP (Massage Therapist)

I was introduced to medical massage therapy while receiving treatment after being in a car accident involving a drunk driver. Massage therapy was a valuable part of my rehabilitation, and this experience sparked an interest and opportunity to help others in similar situations.

I am a native of Clearwater, Florida and had practiced in the Tampa Bay area for over 10 years as the working owner of Clinical Massage and Bodywork. I treated many people who were suffering from chronic pain, injuries and muscular problems.

I specialize in treating chronic headaches, carpal tunnel syndrome, thoracic outlet syndrome, sciatica, tennis elbow, just to name a few, with using many modalities such as Neuromuscular re-education, myofascial release, deep tissue and relaxation.

I relocated to the Olympia area with my husband and son in January 2017. In my personal time, I enjoy spending time with my family, gardening, scuba diving and music.

-Massage Therapy Degree from Florida Metropolitan University in Tampa, Florida 2005.

-Board Certified through the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork (NCBTMB) and a member of the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA).

Ian Brooks / Massage / LMP (Massage Therapist)

Ian is a massage therapist specializing in Neurosomatic Therapy (NST). As a science "nerd", lifelong lover of movement, and Ian tried personal training school before stumbling upon massage therapy. Ian went to massage school at the Center for Neurosomatic Studies in Florida before coming back to Washington to begin practicing. Ian enjoys the constant challenge of adapting to the specific needs of each client. He is particularly passionate about helping patients discover and unwind subtle patterns keeping them in pain. In his free time, Ian enjoys hanging out with his 9 month old and girlfriend, reading and experimenting with obscure works on meditation and self-work, exercising, taking walks in nature, long ranting conversations, and the occasional Netflix binge.
