Dana M. Krank, PT, MS, CSCS, Cert-FDN, is the Epic PT / Lakewood Clinic Director.

History & passions of Dana;

Dana received his education from the University of Montana School of Physical Therapy and specializes in outpatient orthopaedic care. Recently he relocated from Las Vegas, Nevada and returning to his native place of his youth. He is glad to be back in the Northwest to embrace his love for the outdoors, Dana has been practicing physical therapy for 15 years, with an emphasis in outpatient othopaedics and sports medicine.

He is an exercise-based physical therapist, as well as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He has studied to receive Level one certification in Selective Functional Movement Assessment (SFMA), Functional Dry Needling, and is currently working outside his daily duties at Epic PT - to obtain and receive Board Certification as a Sports Certified Specialist, (SCS).

His passion for exercise has led him to train and compete as a natural bodybuilder, and strength athlete. His background in sports and orthopaedics allows him to provide skilled care to all populations of injured individuals. He has worked extensively with the injured worker population, entertainers and performers, dancers and athletes of all levels across all generations. Over the past ten years, Dana has provided care and training to individuals of UFC, Cirque du Soleil, UNLV, IFBB fitness professionals, as well as fire and rescue workers.

Dana's love for othopaedics engages him in further research and development of his skills as he looks to create relationships with other healthcare providers to share, learn and practice for the well-being of local patrons. He looks forward to meeting each of you to learn and grow in our healthcare community. Please do not hesitate to reach out at any time.
